

Status of submitted paper

Taking Charge of your LIS Career: Personal Strategies, Institutional Programs, Strong Libraries

IFLA Satellite Meeting in Milnerton, Cape Town, South Africa
– August 12, 13 and 14, 2015

Sponsor: IFLA's Continuing Professional Development and Workplace Learning Section

Dear xxxx,

Thank you for offering a paper for this Conference. We are pleased to be able to advise you that, following peer review, your proposal has been accepted by the Conference program selectors.

The overall standard of proposals was very high. In choosing the proposals for the Conference the selectors focussed on developing a program which will be of relevance and interest to the wide membership base of IFLA. Individual papers were selected for their:

- relevance to the conference themes
- importance professionally
- originality of thinking, ideas and/or perspective

Could you please, by a return email, confirm that you:

1. accept this invitation to prepare a paper for presentation at the Satellite Meeting in Milnerton, South Africa?
2. will submit your full paper for peer review by March 15 2015 for publication in the online Conference Proceedings? (Note that this tight deadline for submission is required in order to meet publication deadlines.)

On receipt of your confirmation we will provide you with detailed author guidelines and further information regarding the timeline and process for peer review feedback and editing of papers for publication.

Registration information for the satellite meeting will be distributed by early April.

Please note that the guidelines for presentation sessions (length and format) will be sent to you by when???

We look forward to your reply.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions and/or comments.

Ewa Stenberg
ewa.stenberg@mah.se

Satellite conference coordinator